

JANDIT KILLED IN DESPERATE FIGHT

Resists Posse, Slaying Under Sheriff and Wounding Three Deputies.

Santa Anna, Cal., December 14.—In a night fight in the hills at Tamaulipas between a young desperado and more than two dozen officers, government and citizens, the desperado, who had attacked a young girl last night, was killed under Sheriff Robert Squire, who was killed, and three of his deputies were seriously wounded. The battle was the climax of a night pursuit of the desperado, who was seen at the summit of the hills, his revolver smoking, as he fired at the posse.

parcel of property with dwelling thereon, known as 26 East Fourth Street, and described as fronting thirty feet on the south line of Fourth Street between Hull and Decatur Streets for $10 and other valuable considerations.

Additional Post-Office Helpers.

The holiday rush will not catch Manchester Station of the post-office unawares. Three additional employees have been assigned to assist during the balance of the year or until their services are no longer required in handling the extra business. One of the new men, a clerk, will begin work Friday morning. The others, who will act as carriers will report for duty Monday morning. A delivery wagon for packages will also be sent over from the main office.

Victoria Theatre Sold.

The Victoria Theatre, on Hull Street between Thirteenth and Fourteenth Streets, changed hands yesterday when R. Seaton Loving and J. P. Loving, of South Richmond, purchased the property from Thomas J. Gandy for the sum of $1,500. The building was not included in the transaction. It is Seaton Loving, assistant to Deputy City Treasurer J. W. Bromberg, who will have the active management of the theatre. He took charge yesterday afternoon. The policy of the house will continue as heretofore.

With Justice Maurice.

The usual line of petty offenders filed past the desk of Justice H. A. Maurice, in Police Court, Part II, yesterday morning and received the usual brand of medicine handed out for their several offenses. Crap claimed his usual toll on this case, William Jeffery, Noah Saunders, James Chambers, J. Evans, John Burnell and Charles Woodridge each contributed $5 and costs.

Pearl Owens, a colored girl of thirteen years, accused by her mother of stealing $20, was turned over to the parent for correction.

David Hood, colored, charged with beating his wife, was released upon payment of costs. The wife failed to appear against him.

Valentine Rickett, charged with assaulting Lillie House, was fined $200 and costs.

Injured Farmer Improved.

Henry Popstala, the Chesterfield farmer who was seriously injured Saturday night by being thrown from his buggy when it was struck by a street car at Cowardin Avenue and Semmes Street, was discharged yesterday from the Grace Hospital, where he was carried in the city ambulance following the accident. He was still suffering from injuries on the head, but was reported greatly improved. It was feared at first that he had sustained a fracture of the skull.

Southside Deaths and Funerals.

Valentine Sparks, of 1417 Perry Street, died Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the Johnston-Willis Sanatorium. He is survived by a widow, four daughters—Mrs. William Norquay, Mrs. T. Patton, Misses Viola and Emma Starke—and two sons—E. S. and J. J. Starke. He also leaves one sister and one brother. The funeral will be conducted this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the home of Rev. F. W. Long. The pall-bearers will be W. G. Palmer, R. Johnson, E. D. Wilkinson, E. Deal, W. D. Newman and J. C. Clayton. Burial will be in Maury Cemetery.

Mrs. Amelia H. Rowlett, twenty-nine years old, died Saturday at her home in Kirtick, Chesterfield County, after a short illness. She is survived by her husband, her mother—Mrs. Mary Mann, of Kirtick—and three brothers and three sisters. The funeral of Mrs. Eliza J. Glenn, who died Sunday morning at the home of her son, T. P. Saylor, 115 East Thirteenth Street, was held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the West End Methodist Church. Rev. W. C. Sale conducted the services. The burial was in Maury Cemetery.

Refuse to Reopen Season.

Fearing that Chesterfield County would be flooded by hunters from counties in which the hunting season had closed, the Board of Supervisors yesterday, at a meeting held at Chesterfield Courthouse, refused to rescind its action of last week in closing the season for quail and partridges. The board furthermore passed a resolution forbidding the killing of other game protected by State statute after January 1. No other business other than routine matters was taken up.

Boy Accidentally Wounded.

While looking for holly Sunday afternoon, Irvin Cosby, of Chesterfield, was accidentally shot by his younger brother, Calvin. The wound, in the upper part of the leg, is not considered serious, although fifty-three bird-shot were picked out of the injured boy. He was taken to his home, not far distant from Middlethorpe, and there given medical attention.

To Speak on Annexation.

The residents of Woodland Heights, Forest Hill, Swansboro and Oak Grove will be addressed tonight by Business Manager William T. Dabney, of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, in the Woodland Heights Baptist Church, at Twenty-first and Sommers Avenue, on the subject of annexation. All are invited to be present.

Announces Daughter's Marriage.

Mrs. Mary Taylor Pally announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Beulah Bell Pally, to Charles Henry Marks, the ceremony to be performed this afternoon.

Trains in Fatal Crash.

Chickasha, Okla., December 14.—An unidentified man, who was riding the "blind baggage," was killed and twenty persons were injured late today when Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific passenger trains Nos. 2 and 21 collided head-on at Ninnekah, seven miles south of Chickasha. Mrs. Brown, of Oklahoma, is among those hurt. Her skull was fractured and her forehead badly cut. The others seriously injured are Mrs. Susan P. Baker, Duncan, Okla., probable loss of left eye and head badly bruised; F. S. Hubish, Hennessy, Okla., leg broken and internal injuries; W. T. Epker, Kansas City, bruised about head and back; and A. T. Walters, Houston, Ga., nose broken. James Huston, engineer on train No. 21, internal injuries, head bruised. J. W. Cunningham, Okla., leg broken and ankle broken. Joseph Lattimer, mail clerk on train No. 21, foot and leg broken and eye cut about head and face. When the collision occurred the engineer of train No. 21, who had been told that the northbound train was coming around a curve, was endeavoring to back his train into a siding. A freight train in the siding, however, prevented him clearing the track and the collision followed.
